

Gripster® Sport Synthetic Leather Palm Performance Mechanics Style Gloves with a Spandex Back

Description

These mechanics-style work gloves are constructed with a flexible red spandex back and have a black AireFlex® synthetic leather palm. This glove is perfect for biking, racing, canoeing, sailing, and general applications where comfortable dexterity is critical. The foam padding in high-stress areas adds comfort and durability. The gloves feature an elastic cuff with a hook-and-loop closure for a secure fit.

Each pair is individually hang-tagged for retail sale.
