

Premium-Grade Grain Goatskin Leather Palm Mechanics Style Gloves with Impact Protection

Description

These mechanics-style gloves are premium-grade, golden, grain goatskin leather that is processed to feel like soft deerskin. They feature a double palm for extra wear resistance, a reinforced thumb crotch, and a black spandex back of the hand. The TPU impact protection shields the back of the fingers. The gloves feature full leather fingertips and fourchettes. They offer outstanding dexterity and feel and have an elastic cuff with an adjustable hook-and-loop closure for a snug fit. Each pair is individually hang-tagged for retail sale.
