

Premium-Grade Grain Goatskin Leather Double Palm Mechanics Style Gloves with a Spandex Back

Description

These top-of-the-line mechanics-style gloves provide superior abrasion resistance and comfort. The premium-grade white grain goatskin leather palm and black spandex back allow each user a comfortable fit that conforms to the hand. The reinforced palm and thumb have gray split cowhide for better gripping and wear resistance. These gloves feature wrap-around leather on the side of the hand and fingertips, a keystone thumb, and an elastic cuff with hook-and-loop closure.

Each pair is individually hang-tagged for retail sale.
