COFFEE TABLE

2022 JAN TE LINTELO

DESIGN INSPIRATION

'Malibu'—designed by Jan te Lintelo—lives up to its name. This beach city, close to down-town Los Angeles, has a host of architectural highlights, which are home to numerous film stars. They are attracted by the laid-back atmosphere of sun, sea, and beaches, which gave Malibu its nickname, 'the original Surf City'. It is precisely this combination of cool, relaxed and luxurious that we see in this coffee tables: a solid surface on an elegant frame, wich matches the malibu sofa perfectly.

LINTELOO

DESIGNED BY JAN TE LINTELO

Jan te Lintelo was born on 6 January, 1954, into a family of furniture retailers in Haaksbergen, in the eastern part of the Netherlands. Growing up surrounded by beautiful furniture, Jan understood the skills and craftsmanship required from artisans and designers. He went on to study furniture manufacture in Rotterdam, where he not only honed his creative skills but also learned about the business-side of the furniture trade. Practice makes perfect though, so Jan first joined the sales department of renowned, cutting-edge Dutch furniture brand Pastoe and then the equally renowned high-end Gelderland furniture factory. In 1994, he felt ready to spread his wings and started his own company, LINTELOO. He put everything he had learned—especially from customers—into designing his first collection. And he must have done something right, because decades later, Jan's first-ever design, the 'Easy Living' sofa, continues to be one of LINTELOO's best-sellers. Famous designers from all over the world have since designed for LINTELOO. But Jan himself also continues putting pencil to paper, brimming with ideas. His design characteristic remains the same throughout: the ultimate combination of generous proportions, comfort and style, executed by the best craftsmen in the business.
