

The Dallas Morning News

See the Dallas homes on the 46th Annual Lakewood Home Tour for 2022

The homes range in age from built within the past few years to nearly 100 years old.

By Mary Grace Granados

8:42 AM on Oct 7, 2022 CDT

[4/7] This home 6611 Country Club Circle will be part of the 2022 Lakewood Home Tour in Dallas. The tour will take place Nov. 12 and 13, 2022. (Jenifer McNeil Baker)

The Lakewood Home Tour is back this November after two years of “modified” home tours due to the pandemic, according to a press release. Six homes will be open for the tour from 11 a.m.-5 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 12 and Sunday, Nov. 13, 2022. A bonus, seventh home will be open only during the Candlelight Home Tour portion, which will take place from 7-9:30 p.m. on Nov. 12. This evening portion of the tour requires special tickets.

The 46th annual home tour is hosted by the Lakewood Early Childhood PTA. The event raises funds for the community's Dallas Independent School District schools, including Lakewood Elementary School, J.L. Long Middle School and Woodrow Wilson High School, the release said.

In 2020 and 2021, the home tour was limited to the exterior portions of the homes, event co-chair Stephanie Bowen Wright said. In 2020, it was a drive-by tour and, in 2021, the tour took place in the home's yards. This year, attendees can tour the interior of the homes.

Bowen Wright said that the tour's selection committee worked to pick homes that "have a little something for everybody."

The seven homes on the tour represent a variety of styles and were built during different time periods, with some recently built and others nearly 100 years old.

The six homes included in the main portion of the tour include:

- 6611 Country Club Circle
- 6630 Gaston Ave.
- 6848 Velasco Ave.
- 6926 Westlake Ave.
- 7018 Wildgrove Ave.
- 7320 Lakewood Blvd.
- 6858 Avalon Ave. (only available for Candlelight Home Tour)

The home tour is self-guided. Bowen Wright said tickets can be purchased on their website in advance or at the door, and a guidebook will be provided for attendees. Volunteers will be located throughout the homes to provide more information and details about the homes.

General admission tickets cost $25. Tickets for the Candlelight Home Tour cost $35. Tickets for the VIP Candlelight Home Tour are sold out, according to the event's website.

"The feedback we're getting is how excited the community is that it's back," Bowen Wright said.