When the Halloween season comes to an end and it's time to pack up all of your spooky home decor—what if you took your favorite elements of the haunted holiday and made them permanent fixtures in your home? Transform your Halloween interior decor into pieces you get to enjoy long after all of the candy from trick-or-treating is gone.

Find hauntingly bold and moody inspiration in these 15 ideas to incorporate year round Halloween decor into your spooky aesthetic.

8. Create Contrast With Black and White

If the orange and black color palette of Halloween doesn't work in your home, try a different color combo. Pair a bold black with a glossy white for a modern feel and timeless style. These high-contrast opposites set the stage for adding a mixture of Halloween inspired and traditional pieces.
