DRIFT AWAY

'The bathroom is one of the only rooms in the house where you can, literally, lock yourself in for some "me-time"! Instead of a utilitarian space, it makes sense to create a sanctuary where you can relax, refresh and revive,' says Emma Joyce, brand manager at House of Rohl. 'Freestanding baths are synonymous with luxurious design, and generous rainfall showers are now standard in spa-style bathrooms.'

SUBTLE INTEREST

This spa bathroom by Maestri Studio features four different tile shapes in its monochrome scheme. Large format floor tiles, elongated hexagons, Metro tiles and a marble-look finish create a subtle dynamism. 'The owner wanted a "classic traditional" look, which we achieved with marble lookalike surfaces, the arched alcove, curved tub and brass accents,' explains Katie Paulsen, lead interior designer at Maestri Studio.
