products Granby, Henderson, Aurora, and Carrera standout The latest series of U.S.-made solid-brass cabinet hardware from the celeb designer typifies his canny mix of classic and contemporary influences and offers a broad range of styles. thomfiliciaforaccurate.com

standout The Black-owned paint brand's interior-designer founder adds three new acrylic colors to her succinct, carefully curated palette, including this chill gray-green that, like all her wall coatings, is VOC-free and Greenguard Gold-certified. clare.com

standout Their surfaces adorned with rodlike scoring that dampens noise, PET wall tiles by the paper artist derived from a range of inspirations: natural textures, the interplay of wind and water, traditional art forms, and fashion. fact.design product Swiss standout Customizable mantel designs crafted of limestone, travertine, or marble derive from the company founder's hand-sketches and are inspired by architectural experiences enjoyed at various international locales. maestrigallery.com product Gingham standout Based in Portland, Oregon, the interior designer drops his second collection of woven-to-size window coverings, among them this natty mid-scale check in ramie, a fiber whose natural variation lends softness to the gridlike pattern. hartmannforbes.com product Vika standout Encompassing a floor screen (with optional integrated lighting) and pendant fixture, the acoustic collection dampens low- and high-frequency noise levels courtesy of soft, sound-absorbing PET cores covered with Textel felt. Through Unika Vaev. unikavaev.com

product Xilo, Santos standout The maker celebrates its big 2-0 with the debut of new prefinished FSC-certified Designer Veneers—including six by the Italian icon—and switching to a more flexible and sustainable color-matched wood backer that results in cleaner edges. treefrogveneer.com product Luminescence standout The brand creative director expands her Bijou collection of jewelry-inspired brass hardware with historically rooted knob and pull designs like this art deco-esque sunburst, in finishes such as new gunmetal and black nickel. belwith-keeler.com
