ADJACENT ATTRACTION - FIELDS FRISCO

Fields reimagines the way we think about our neighborhoods and community – how we live, work, play, learn, eat, shop and embrace the outdoors.

Fields will be home to thriving businesses and restaurants, dream homes and beautiful neighborhoods, top-notch schools, and world-class parks and open spaces. The University of North Texas at Frisco will also call Fields home. You have the Omni PGA Frisco Resort & Convention Center with a sprawling PGA District full of entertainment right in the backyard of the PGA Headquarters.

Fields boasts a stunning landscape that is not just unique, it's a full 200 feet from its highest point on the sloped bluffs down to the banks at the banks of Panther Creek – featuring topography unseen elsewhere in North Texas. Fields is defined by how it uses this unique land to create an inviting pedestrian experience that links the entire community. Trails that lead through stands of trees. A creek enhanced into a "Chain of Lakes." Pedestrian bridges, hills overlooking golf, and other engaging connections and vistas.

- The Preserve - Where luxury comes home. Dream "forever" homes, gated communities connected with unrivaled, 360-degree views of the new home of golf, PGA Frisco.
- Brookside - A timeless American Dream neighborhood, reimagined. A classic yet completely unique environment, this neighborhood offers something for every discerning taste.

ADJACENT ATTRACTION - UNT AT FRISCO AT FRISCO LANDING

Located at the southwest corner of Preston Road and Panther Creek Parkway, the UNT at Frisco branch campus is home to the new, state-of-the-art Frisco Landing building. The campus sits on 100 acres generously provided by the City of Frisco at no cost, marking the beginning of a strong partnership.

Serving more than 3,200 students, the UNT at Frisco campus offers a broad range of undergraduate and master's degree programs. The 135,000-square-foot Frisco Landing facility is purposefully designed to support student success, featuring collaborative classrooms and study areas that foster open communication and engagement between students and faculty, The Spark Makerspace, a cafe, walking trails and an outdoor amphitheater.

Frisco Landing expands access to the high-quality education UNT offers, benefiting students across North Texas and beyond. UNT continually creates new programs designed to help students be successful with in-demand careers, and UNT at Frisco's convenient location near some of the world's top companies and industries allows for incredible opportunities. For example, UNT at Frisco already hosts classes with partners like the Dallas Cowboys and the PGA.

FRISCO HIGHLIGHTS

- Frisco is a modern metropolitan city at the top of its game, leading the way in population growth, business innovation, and an extraordinary quality of life, attracting a diversity of businesses and their highly skilled workers and families from across the country.
- Frisco's annual growth rate has remained steady at 6.9%, with a compound annual growth rate of 5.4% for the past ten years. Even with coming from a 33,828 population number in 2000 to now more than 200,000, the city also offers plenty of room to grow over the coming years. As of January 2021, the city was considered only 75% developed.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

2-10-2025

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER’S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker’s own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client’s questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker’s minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer’s agent. An owner’s agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker’s minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller’s agent. A buyer/tenant’s agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker’s duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker’s services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
