

TreesForLife

Stepping Stones into Nature

Connecting new Australians with Nature

Join our outdoor activities and learn more about local plants and animals.

 Guided Nature Walk with Care For Nature Activity 9.30 - 11.00am

Friday 10 May, Rocky Gully Wetlands

Saturday 15 June, Murray Park, Thomas Street, Murray Bridge

 Easy, short walks in local parks to learn more about native plants and animals followed by Hands-on activities include removing weeds from native bushland and collecting native seeds for growing plants if you want to stay for longer

Family Fun Day 10.00 - 12.00noon

Saturday 18 May, Family Fun day with native Animals Anonymous at Murray Bridge Community Centre where you can also create an insect and bee hotel to take home!

BOOK IN TO SECURE YOUR PLACE

Run by Trees For Life. Transport options available. All welcome.

For more information contact Tricia email: triciac@treesforlife.org.au

phone: 8406 0500

web: www.treesforlife.org.au/stepping-stones

TreesForLife

Stepping Stones into Nature

Connecting new Australians with Nature

Trees For Life are organising friendly and safe activities to introduce people new to Australia to nature at their own pace.

Come and find out about the nature in your town, Murray Bridge.

For more information

Contact Tricia on 8406 0500 or email triciac@treesforlife.org.au

Government of South Australia
South Australian Murray-Darling Basin
Natural Resources Management Board

This project is supported by the SAMDB NRM Board through funding from the NRM Levies

