

Manufacturer's Declaration

Halogenated organic compounds

Halogenated organic compounds is a substance class which covers many substances used in various applications such as solvents or pesticides. Many of these substances are potential health hazards and prohibited to use by law.

We hereby confirm that no halogenated organic compounds are added in the production of EGGER products (except PVC edges and PVC foils).

Manfred Riepertinger
Head Core Material Management &
Product Sustainability Group
St. Johann i.T., 10/09/2018

Fritz EGGER GmbH & Co. OG
Weiberndorf 20
6380 St. Johann in Tirol
Österreich