

Russian Language- Beginner's Level Syllabus

[2017]

Instructor Information

Instructor(s)

1. Natalia Dmitrieva
- 2.

Email

Nataliad74@yahoo.com

Office Location & Hours

Academy387 Premises, PM hours

Instructor's Biography (link)

Natalia Dmitrieva

Natalia was born in New-York, USA in 1974, but grew up in Moscow, Russia, where she finished high school and graduated from Lomonosov Moscow State University, in Philology and Linguistics. In the 90s she moved back to US, where she graduated from the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut in Mass Communication and PR. Upon graduation Natalia moved back to NYC to pursue career in that field, but her destiny had something else in stock. Natalia entered the world of Fashion, and made her career in Retail Fashion Buying, working at global brands such as Escada, Donna Karan and DKNY, Ann Taylor, etc. In 2012 she moved to Sarajevo, Bosnia, with her husband and kids. Here, in Sarajevo, she is successfully teaching Russian language, works as an interpreter and organizes various cultural projects between Bosnia and Russia. Natalia's ultimate goal is broaden and deepen relationship between these two countries, and teaching Russian language is one of the stepping stones.

General Information

Description

This course is developed for adult learners at their beginning stage of learning Russian. Average duration for this level is approximately 100 hours. The main task is to deliver a quick and comprehensive way of understanding and learning various aspects of Russian language, different types of speech activity. The textbook organically combines grammatical and conversational courses. The Dictionary in the back of the Textbook provides translation into English, French and German languages for useful linguistic parallels.

Expectations and Goals

Whether you are looking to expand your educational, business or cultural horizons or simply add another foreign language to your skills, this is a very effective way to start.

Course Materials

Required Materials

"Let's Go "Russian for Adults. A Course for beginners textbook (a copy of).

Optional Materials

Will be available for copying during the course.

Course Duration

Feb'2017 - 6 months out. Planned twice a week.

Additional Information and Resources

Course price is 650 KM

Min 15 students.