In memory of WILLIAM GREENWOOD of Pecket Well who was found dead at Bridgewellhead in Wadsworth on the 14th day of August 1820.
He was forsaken by a bad wife who enforced him to serve his Majesty in the 3rd york Militia of 8 years.
He left a girl behind to be cozened by her mother's father out of his money. His own father deposed for felony, his own brother JAMES GREENWOOD, who was arranged before a magistrate for his raiment which he had bequethed to him before his death in the presence of two witnesses.
His thread of life now spun. His age near thirty five years.And in his trouble, dropped down and left this vale of tears.
