TheBestSchools.org Celebrates the States with Comprehensive College Rankings and Guides for Each of America's 50 States

HOUSTON, TEXAS (July 10, 2018) — Summer is the time for road trips. And this summer, many prospective college students are road tripping—both on-campus and online—to the colleges and universities they might choose to attend.

As part of the ongoing celebration of the country's 242nd birthday, TheBestSchools.org provides the leading map to the top selections for higher education excellence and affordability in the USA. With hundreds of leading schools featured, along with detailed facts and figures, these comprehensive, updated rankings will be the smart choice for information for thousands of savvy students:

- The 100 Best Colleges and Universities by State 2018–2019

"With higher education costs still rising, students are increasingly looking to take advantage of lower tuition by staying in-state," says Dan Edelen, marketing director of TheBestSchools.org. "Whether that college is a traditional campus or an online college that may afford even more savings and convenience, in-state

We know how education works and how to make it work for you.

attendance is often the most cost-conscious choice. It's why we worked hard to make that selection process easier for both students and their parents by spotlighting the best schools in their respective states and categories."

The rankings allow students to jump to the state of their choice, and in many cases feature additional, expanded school profiles that go in-depth into degree offerings, accreditations, and links to other ranking lists at TheBestSchools.org on which that school appears. It's one of the most comprehensive, state-specific resources on a single-destination Internet site.

TheBestSchools.org is a leader in school rankings — secondary, college & university, postgraduate, online, and on-campus — providing millions of prospective students with the information they need to find the right school for them. TheBestSchools.org is an educational website whose staff and advisory board believe learning transforms lives for the better and should be a lifelong pursuit.
