

Opportunities in Primary Education

Lecturer or Senior Lecturer - Bachelor of Education (Primary) and/or Graduate Diploma of Teaching (Primary)

Te Rito Maioha is proudly a Category One rated tertiary provider. We are a dynamic bicultural organisation, committed to supporting high-quality primary education through initial teacher education, delivered through blended learning. Due to the growth in our Bachelor of Teaching and Graduate Diploma programmes (Primary), we have an opportunity for a lecturer | kaiako kaimahi.

Use your skills and experience to inspire student teachers to become confident, professional teachers or leaders. Work as part of a collaborative vibrant academic team located throughout Aotearoa who share your commitment to a bicultural primary school curriculum. Our varied programme reflects our commitment to bicultural kaupapa and the best of local and international research and practise.

As Lecturer, you will have a Masters or PhD or be working towards a Masters or PhD in a discipline that is related to the primary school sector and have recent primary sector curriculum experience.

As Senior Lecturer, you will have a Masters or PhD in a relevant field, demonstrated excellence in teaching, have recent primary sector curriculum experience and it would be desirable to have demonstrated research experience with publication in kaupapa relevant to this role.

We offer a competitive salary, generous study leave and professional development. Your role will include a research component, allowing you to tie your Masters or PhD study to your role and contribute to our research strategy.

For this role we require the following:

- Experience or strong interest in teaching and mentoring adults at a tertiary level, particularly Student Teachers
- Full teacher certification and practising certificate essential
- Recent in-school Primary Curriculum experience
- Experience teaching in a blended and online learning environment is desirable
- Knowledge in te reo Māori me ngā tikanga Māori is desirable, but support is given to develop in this area
- A commitment to growing bicultural practice and commitment to Te Tiriti o Waitangi
- A master's degree in education or relevant discipline, or engagement in post-graduate education study
- A current full drivers' licence and vehicle for work use

The successful candidate will be based at one of our regional Takiwā ako locations: Dunedin, Christchurch, Nelson, Palmerston North, Hastings, Rotorua, Gisborne, Auckland/Manukau, or Whangārei
