Here's What We Can Do For You

One new chair or an entire building of furniture, need it now or need time?
Use our nationwide experts when planning your next office space

Why HON?

The HON Company, founded in 1944, hired GI's returning from WWII to make our vertical and lateral filing cabinets that are still in many agency offices, standing the test of time. We have come a long way since then, offering products that outfit the entire office space and classroom solutions. Our commitment to Government - State, Local, Education and Federal needs is as strong as ever. Our partnership with our nationwide dealer distribution network makes it all possible, offering local, experienced relationships that help us deliver on our promises. The HON Company has been a GSA contract holder since the 80s and holds more than 50 federal, state, local and education contracts.
