Cohesive comfort meets sophisticated style.

A New Standard in Guest Seating

If you're like most busy people, you've got more than a few things to negotiate throughout the day—but comfort shouldn't be one of them. Confer—HON's sculptured, mid-century modern approach to guest seating—has a persuasive offer on the table. Not only does this graceful chair pair beautifully with the HON case goods portfolio, it lends a retro-contemporary aesthetic and reliable durability to a variety of spaces.

"Confer is the first wood chair for HON in several years, so I wanted to ensure the shape was simple and uncomplicated with aesthetic longevity. I took inspiration from my vintage Sikes brand courthouse chair I have at home with the back flows into the arms. Confer was designed with a slightly relaxed and welcoming geometry that comfortably fits a wide range of users. I designed the series to have several options like multiple back styles, dual fabric options, arm/armless, wall-saver frame as well as a convenient handle that's milled into the wood back for easy moving."
