Flip the Script on Learning

Flip, Teach, Roll, Repeat

Who says you need a permission slip to shake things up? Field Trip tables are a teaching tool that's ready to move when you are. With a writable top that flips in a flash, height options that meet every posture, and a nesting frame that resets the space in seconds, it's the table that turns classrooms into launchpads. Whether it's a group project, a whiteboard brainstorm, or a pop-up circle time, Field Trip makes every lesson feel like something new. No bus required.

Movement that Matters

Some of the best lessons happen when you break routine. Field Trip gives teachers the freedom to take learning somewhere unexpected—without ever leaving the room. Flexible by design, this table adapts to every posture, pace, and plan. Its adjustable frame meets the needs of today’s classrooms while leaving room for whatever tomorrow brings. From student-centered setups to multipurpose spaces, it’s ready to grow with your teaching style—and your school.

RISE TO THE OCCASION
Height can be configured to support tiered layouts for enhanced visibility and engagement.
