Make It Your Own

Altitude offers a range of features and materials, adapting to individual needs and supporting personal choice in how work gets done.

A broad range of height adjustments and weight capacities ensure customized comfort for every user.

Three control panel options let users choose the interface that best suits their workflow.

For seamless power access, pair Altitude Power Rail with tables to create a high-functioning workstation.

Altitude A8 screen moves with you, bringing adaptable privacy to open-plan spaces.
