94000 Series[™]

Desks

Part Classic. Part Timeless. All Business.

There's something special about a traditional space. HON's 94000 Series is a nostalgic nod to the days when exceptional craftsmanship, high quality materials, and remarkable durability mattered - and to us, it still does. That's why we've designed this distinguished collection to reflect your diligence and determination. With the warmth of rich mahogany, attention to elegant details, and durability that stands the test of time, our 94000 Series was made for people who do business the old-fashioned way - by hard work, determination, and a desire to be the best they can be.

Form Meets Function

From the time you sit down with that first cup of coffee to the time you head home for dinner, you need a workspace designed around the way you get it all done - and that means a one-size-fits-all approach is a dealbreaker. The 94000 Series makes the most of your office real estate by offering a variety of desk sizes to streamline your productivity and savvy organizational options that keep you on task and on time. Plus, with U- or L-shaped configuration capabilities and a comprehensive storage selection that goes beyond filing cabinets - think hutches, bookcases, cabinets, and wardrobes - it's easy to balance the personal with the professional.

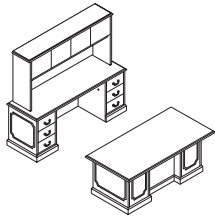

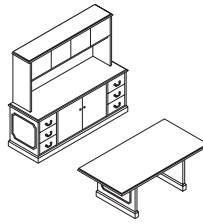

Shown with Invitation® seating.
