Office Comfort with a Residential Touch

Make Your Space Exceptional

The workplace is evolving—and so are the ways we interact with it. West Hill invites you to step away from your desk and into a softer, more inspiring setting. Designed for connection, comfort, and everyday ease, this lounge collection makes collaboration feel effortless and personal time more restorative. Choose from refined silhouettes, plush materials, and curated finishes that elevate the mood of any environment. Whether you're catching up with a colleague or taking a well-earned pause, West Hill makes room for moments that matter.

Style, Meet Substance

West Hill balances the look of home with the performance of the office. Its residential-inspired details—like tailored cushions, inviting upholstery, and soft lines—blend seamlessly into high-use environments thanks to durable construction and flexible configuration options. Create a cohesive aesthetic or experiment with mix-and-match pieces, rich textures, and playful color pairings. West Hill adapts to your vision, offering both function and flair across open spaces, lounges, and breakout zones.

An Instant Upgrade

When your workday calls for a shift in pace, West Hill makes it easy to reset. Paired with coordinating HON surfaces and accessories, this collection creates spaces that invite focus without formality. Whether you're meeting with a client, reconnecting with your team, or simply finding a spot to think, West Hill delivers adaptable comfort with a professional polish. It's a softer approach to productivity—where you're supported, not boxed in.

A Casual Collection for the Changing World

In a world where work is more fluid than ever, West Hill helps bring people together on their own terms. From team chats to quiet moments of solo focus, its flexible design encourages comfort in any setting. The soft shapes and lounge-like posture evoke the familiarity of home, while the thoughtful proportions and accessories make it a perfect fit for today's collaborative office. It's a collection built for connection—without compromising comfort or style.

Tim Buchenberger

Rick Joutras

In collaboration with HON, the QDesign team of Tim Buchenberger and Rick Joutras created seating scaled not only for comfort but also for ease of space planning. "Our goal is to create meaningful pieces that enrich the user experience," says Joutras. As a result, West Hill is soft but structured, with "lived-in" details that feel at home anywhere in the modern office.

Features

West Hill Casual Lounge

Rich upholstery detail is West Hill's calling card. The tuxedo design lends itself to both a transitional and casual aesthetic while providing many optional features.

Pillow Cushions

The Pillow Back option has a casual aesthetic and allows you to lean back with ease.

Standard Cushions

The square, welted cushion of the Standard Back creates a contemporary look while providing supportive comfort.

Contrasting Fabric

The Contrasting Fabric option allows you to select up to three fabrics—specify a different color or pattern for the frame, seat, and back cushions.

Throw Pillows

Available in a Square or Lumbar version, adding throw pillows offers extra comfort and a pop of personality.

Power Modules

Get connected—add a power module to plug in and power up.
