Cityscape 2.0

Todd Bracher's latest collection for HBF reimagines modular seating for public spaces with a compelling new planning geometry and refined detailing. Cityscape 2.0's unique pointed back cushions evoke accent throw pillows to provide a palette for creative design expression with a wide range of HBF Textiles. Their residential-inspired form belies their durability — they have been engineered to withstand the demands of high-traffic spaces with a foam construction to maintain their form and incorporate fasteners to prevent movement. Thoughtfully considered modules like the 'Cityscape Pentagon' evoke comfort and progressive design, empowering designers to program 'rambling' lounge landscapes with 120° & 150° planning possibilities. As a timely response to requirements for social distancing, Cityscape 2.0's integrated table modules maintain required spacing and allow for easy reconfigurations in the future.
