Define Your Space.

Divide & Conquer

When connection counts, there's nothing like a shared open space to keep productivity at its peak. But optimizing those synergetic environments is crucial to physical and emotional well-being—that's why Universal Screens were developed. Designed with a user's privacy in mind, these mounted screen solutions help define boundaries in bustling office zones without discouraging connection. With visual barriers available in a wide variety of materials and sizes, Universal Screens offer customized comfort and control while maintaining meaningful engagement when it matters the most.

An Ideal Co-Worker

From training rooms to existing workstations and benching platforms, Universal Screens are a thoughtful addition to collaborative spaces that sometime require individualized discretion. With a wide variety of material options and finishes to choose from—sleek metal, contemporary glass, sophisticated fabrics, easily cleanable laminate, and more—these adaptable units offer any office a cohesive, streamlined aesthetic.

Shown with Empower® Benching, Nucleus® chairs, and Contain® storage.
