ADDITIONAL ENTERTAINMENT

THE CABBAGE PATCH

A drop-kick from Twickenham, The Cabbage Patch is more than just the most famous rugby pub in the world. The only place to be on match day, it's a great spot to relax in the week too – serving gourmet pub food, outstanding ales and an enviable whiskey collection.

THE WHITE SWAN

A traditional free house right on the banks of the River Thames in Twickenham. The pub dates back to the 17th century. You can see them in the Samuel Scott print, dated 1760, that hangs above the fire in the bar. The pub is made up of two rooms, a terrace-balcony and a garden right on the riverbank.

THE IVY CAFÉ RICHMOND

Positioned in London neighbourhoods known for their chic village-style surroundings. Offering accessible all-day dining in a local, relaxed and friendly environment, the Cafés draw both locals and visitors alike, whether you live, work or shop nearby.

THE CROWN

One of TW's finest watering holes. Our pub and restaurant is ideally located in St. Margarets, just a mile away from Twickenham Rugby Stadium and a stone's throw from Marble Hill Park. The Crown proudly serves delicious British food, from the traditional pub classics to daily seasonal specials. Our bar is stocked with real ales and wines from around the world with something for everyone.

THE FOX

Bright 17th-century inn with rustic decor, serving real ales and British food, plus live music.

THE EEL PIE

A traditional pub with a contemporary twist in Twickenham. If you're looking for a pub with a mix of old and new, with a passion for both rugby and music, then the Eel Pie is a must on your next visit to Twickenham!
