CHEFS OF THE GREEN ROOM

OLLIE DABBOUS

Bounding onto the London culinary scene in January 2012 with the opening of Restaurant Dabbous, Ollie's first restaurant became one of the hardest to get a table at in the city. After promptly being rewarded its first Michelin star within six months of opening.

Ollie is definitely one chef who everyone is talking about at the moment.

ATUL KOCHHAR

One of the first Indian chefs to gain a Michelin star, Atul Kochhar is a culinary legend.

His inimitable talent as a twice-Michelin-starred chef has changed the way people perceive and experience Indian food. He has been at the forefront of the Indian culinary industry for over 25 years and is recognised on an international scale.
