

Playground Upgrade

The Iron Cove Playground incorporates a number of City seat and table settings as part of the playground and surrounding BBQ area.

The Architect specified marine grade cast aluminium and extruded anodised aluminium battens for all seats and settings to create an attractive, user friendly environment with a view to minimising long term maintenance costs. The Town & Park range of seats and table settings are all capable of meeting the specification.

