Madam:

I advise you from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, W.3354, it appears that Edward Cook enlisted in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and served as a private in the Second Pennsylvania Regiment, was in the battles of Long Island, Trenton and Paoli, and served to the close of the war. There are no officers given nor length of service stated.

After the Revolution he moved to Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, where his father, whose name is not stated, lived.

The soldier married in the fall of 1785, Rebecca Wilson.

He died in 1797, in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

She married in 1807, William McGrew, who died in 1823 or 1824.

The widow, Rebecca, died March 14, 1845, in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, leaving the following children:

Children by Edward Cook; Martha and Eliza; children by William McGrew; Wilson, Morgan, Lucinda, Belinda and Artlisse or Artlissa or Artelisse.

The above mentioned children were allowed the pension due their mother on account of the services of the above named Edward Cook.

The above noted Edward Cook or Cooke is the only soldier of that name found on the Revolutionary War records of this bureau, who served with the Pennsylvania Troops.

Respectfully,

EARL D. CHURCH
Commissioner.
