

Deploying Hoshin Kanri in industry-leading aircraft engine division

Major US aerospace manufacturer

Background

Major US aerospace manufacturer with global service operations

Company's aircraft engines are widely used in both civil aviation and military aviation

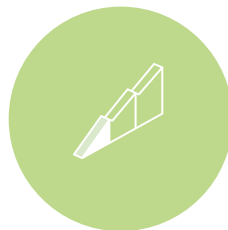

Company also manufactures gas turbines for industrial and power generation, and marine turbines

Challenge

Aligning all areas of the business into a single "policy deployment" (Hoshin Cascade)

Getting visibility into progress against plan across the organization

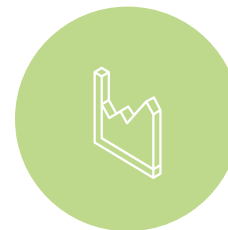

Solution

i-nexus for Hoshin Kanri Initial Deployment Package

Product deployment consulting services

Product training services

Product configuration services

Benefits

Unified 6 Level Hoshin Plan ensuring traceability of execution actions throughout the organization

Full Planning Cycle and Catchball process completed with an X-Matrix to agree and validate strategic actions

Blended project plans for all connected projects and metrics in each part of the organization informed resourcing and prioritization decisions

Goals 5 4 0

KPIs 1 5 0 0

Projects 7 0 0

Organizations 7 5