ABOUT STONE COLLECTION

LAMAR'S Stone Collection Series, part of the In&Out Collection, combines safety, durability, and style for residential, commercial, and industrial spaces. Featuring Italian High-Resistance Glazed technology, it offers exceptional strength, slip resistance, and a refined finish. Its innovative "punchless punch effect" enhances both aesthetics and functionality. Designed for courtyards, patios, sidewalks, and high-traffic areas, the collection provides anti-abrasion, anti-polishing, and tactile friction properties for safer, more sophisticated environments.

Crafted with a perfect balance of performance and aesthetics, our tiles are built to withstand the demands of modern living. Their anti-skid surface ensures enhanced safety, while superior strength delivers long-lasting durability in high-traffic areas. Resistant to stains, chemicals, and harsh weather conditions, these tiles maintain their elegance and integrity over time. Designed for effortless maintenance, they are easy to clean and retain their pristine appearance with minimal upkeep. Precision manufacturing ensures consistent sizing and seamless installation, creating flawless finishes across every space. With fire-resistant and moisture-resistant properties, our tiles provide reliable protection in both indoor and outdoor environments.
