

Cookie statement

We use cookies on our website. Cookies are small information files that are placed on your computer when visiting the website. When visiting our website for the first time, we will display a message explaining cookies. We will ask for your consent to the use of cookies, to the extent we are obliged to.

Why we use cookies

Cookies allow a website to work properly and to understand visitor behaviour on the website. With this information, web services and your user experience of a website can be improved. Cookies do not compromise the security of your computer.

What type of cookies we use

Functional cookies

Functional cookies are necessary for the proper functioning of the website or to ensure that the information you want is displayed quickly and correctly each time you visit our website. This is useful because it saves you having to re-enter your data, indicate your preferences or change your settings.

Non-functional cookies

Non-functional cookies inform us about the number of visitors to the website and how these visitors use the website. We can use this information to further improve the website. We also use these cookies to show you appropriate advertisements on other sites or to provide you with targeted offers. These files disappear automatically as soon as you close your internet browser or remain on your computer for up to 12 months after your last visit.

Analytical cookies are used to:

- improve the performance of the website by reducing the load time of the pages you visit. These data are collected anonymously.
- improve the user experience

Advertising cookies are used to:

send information to other websites based on which they can customise their advertising.

Social Media Cookies (Facebook, Google+, Twitter, Pinterest) are used to:

allow you to share and 'like' things.

Deletion of cookies

Cookies come in the form of session cookies or persistent cookies. Session cookies are deleted from your computer as soon as you close your web browser. Persistent cookies remain stored on your computer until their expiry date. You can also manually delete these cookies from your computer at any time. Look under 'Internet Options' in your browser (the Help function in your browser may help you with this). You can read more about cookies and how to delete and check them on www.aboutcookies.org. If you choose to delete cookies, the website may no longer function optimally, and you may not be able to access some services.

Personal data

When setting certain cookies, personal data are collected as well. If you want to know more about how Avit processes personal data, please visit the Avit Privacy Statement that can be found at the bottom of our website.

Modification of cookie statement

This cookie statement may be amended in connection with new website developments or legal obligations. You can always consult the most recent version of the cookie statement on our website.

This cookie statement has been drawn up in Dutch and in English. In case of any inconsistencies between different versions the Dutch version will always prevail.
