Course outline and objectives

Ever since assuming their powers in 2013, the PRA and FCA have clearly signaled, and acted upon, their intention to subject senior management to a more intense and intrusive level of scrutiny. They introduced the new Senior Manager & Certification Regime for some types of financial institution initially and have now extended a version of it across all regulated firms.

While implementation of the new regime may be complex, the consequences of failing to comply with the enhanced requirements are likely to be damaging for the approved individual and highly disruptive for the organisation.

Who will benefit?

This event will be of value to individuals falling under the scope of the Senior Managers regime or about to become so. It will also be of interest to those responsible for managing or supporting Senior Managers. This programme is particularly useful ahead of a regulatory visit or as part of the induction for senior managers.

Training approach

The course programme will comprise a blend of trainer presentations, group discussion, practical examples and case studies. There will be ample opportunity for questions, experience sharing and networking. All course materials (and at face-to-face events, refreshments and lunch) will be provided.

"Very interesting - especially as an update on the new/current regulatory topics"

Course Leader

Gary Pitts has over 25 years of compliance experience in the UK and overseas, including spells in regulation, asset management, investment banking and as managing partner of a boutique financial services house.

He was a director of Cayman and Luxembourg domiciled hedge funds, as well as regulated companies in the UK and South African has been an FSA/FCA registered person in Controlled Functions 10 and/or 11 since 2001. He now runs his own governance and regulatory consultancy: Tetractys Partners LLP.

Gary is a regular conference speaker and author of technical articles on compliance related topics and sits on the regulatory advisory group of the Journal of Securities Operations and Custody. He brings a combination of compliance and commercial experience, in terms of both practical implementation and Board level oversight, to the training he delivers.

"Highly informative and comprehensive in its coverage of this subject matter"
