

Whitfield Studios, an iconic music studio since the sixties, is now our haven for big dreams and radical ideas.

Our home is full of collaborative zones, work stations, and event space, through to a dedicated quiet zone. A space for everyone and every need, trialed and designed by our people.

Welcome to Whitfield Studios

Let's take a look around

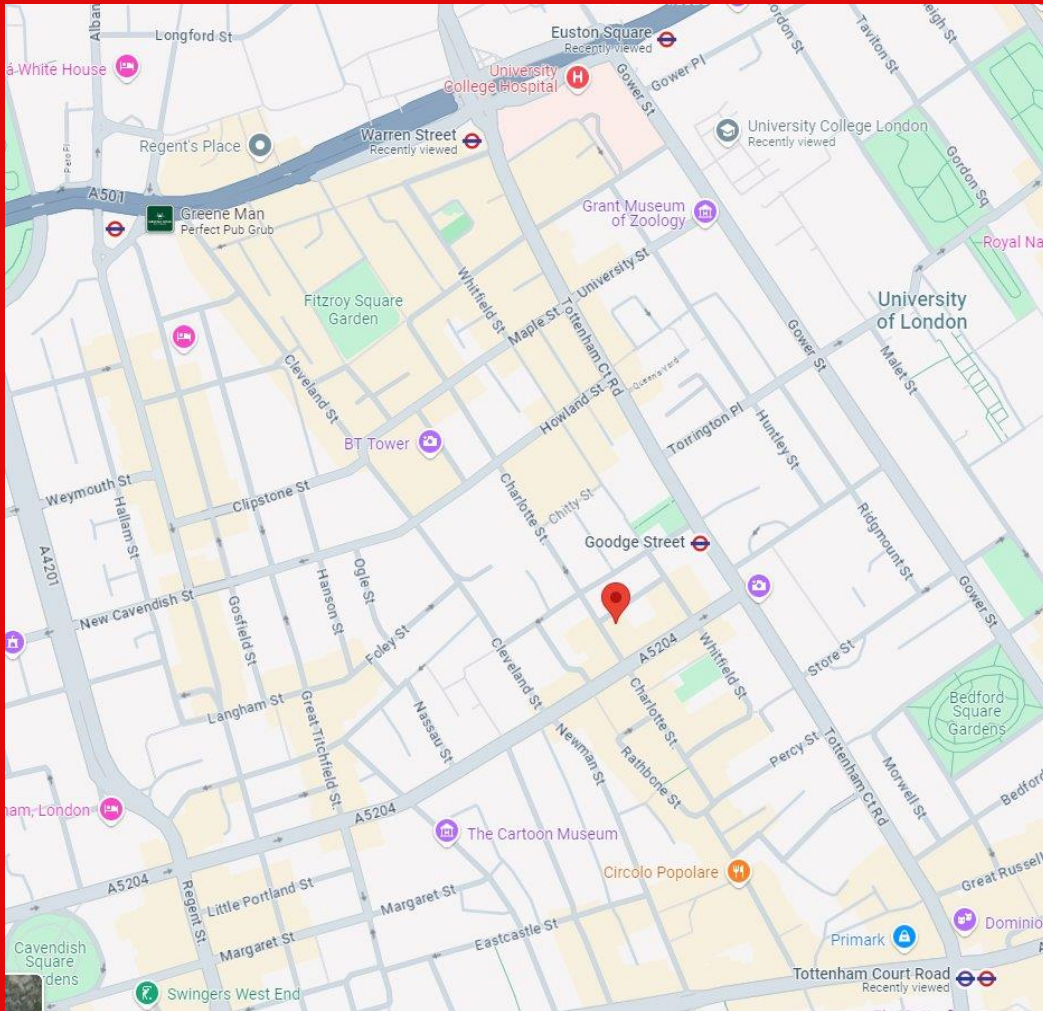

Lights in each meeting room are adjustable, so please just ask if you'd like to adjust the lighting to a level that suits you.
If you'd like further details about our accessibility features, please let us know.

Good to know: Our space is fully accessible with acoustic considerations throughout. You'll also find accessible toilets and toilets for all.

Getting to Whitfield Studios

Tube

Goodge Street (Northern line) is the closest underground station. We're also just an 8 minute walk from Warren Street (Victoria line) or Euston Square (Circle line).

Train

Euston is the closest train station where you can either get the Victoria or Northern line, or it's just an 18 minute walk.

Bus

You can catch buses number 18, 24, 55 and 73 which all stop at either Goodge Street Station (3 minutes walk) or Great Titchfield Street (4 minutes walk).

Taxi

Use the address: Whitfield Studios, 50A Charlotte Street, London, W1T 2NS

Bicycle

You'll find secure bike rack storage on site and showers.

Please note: Parking is not provided, if you choose to drive we recommend that you check the area for parking options in advance of your visit.

You'll find us behind a large black gated entrance with golden handles. You should be able to see our Virgin logo through the alley!

