

Sunday Stabroek

Vol. 26 No. 29 SUNDAY, JANUARY 29, 2012 - PRICE $120.00 (VAT inclusive)

Stabroek News can be found on the Internet at <http://www.stabroeknews.com>
Email Address: stabroeknews@stabroeknews.com, stabroeknews@hotmail.com

Boy, 11, shot dead during hunting trip

Page 9

Justin Nobrega

Canadian High Commissioner to Guyana David Devine (third, left) and other volunteers pasting Inside Out Witness Project posters on the seawall yesterday. The posters were developed from photos taken by 15 Guyanese children and have been put up around the city over the past week. Other volunteers included US Ambassador to Guyana Brent Hardt and his wife, staff of the US embassy, staff and volunteers of Help and Shelter, Minister of Education Priya Manickchand and Minister of Human Services and Social Security Jennifer Webster among others. (Photo by Anjuli Persaud)

Pomeroon farmers still stymied by flooding, disease and low prices

— switch crops, planting less

Pages 16 & 17

Gov't still to tap into US$10M loan for science, technology overhaul, Carrington reveals

See page 3

31-0932087

Canadian High Commissioner to Guyana David Devine (third, left) and other volunteers pasting Inside Out Witness Project posters on the seawall yesterday. The posters were developed from photos taken by 15 Guyanese children and have been put up around the city over the past week. Other volunteers included US Ambassador to Guyana Brent Hardt and his wife, staff of the US embassy, staff and volunteers of Help and Shelter, Minister of Education Priya Manickchand and Minister of Human Services and Social Security Jennifer Webster among others. (Photo by Anjuli Persaud)