PNEUMATIC STANDING DESK CONVERTER - BLACK

Enjoy the benefits of a standing desk at a fraction of the typical cost with the CVTR32-BK from Luxor. This pneumatic, height-adjustable standing desk converter comes fully assembled and ready to use. Simply place it on top of your current desk, table, or work surface and have it operating in minutes.

The CVTR32-BK easily adjusts to the exact height you need for correct posture and a more productive workspace. A gentle squeeze of the pneumatic air cylinder's handle quietly and effortlessly adjusts your desktop converter from a seated to standing position in just seconds. Even when fully extended, the stability and durability of the CVTR32-BK means no tipping, bouncing, or wobbling. Its generously-sized surface easily accommodates a laptop, monitor, a keyboard, mouse, and other accessories up to 20 lbs. Plus, its fold-flat design makes it portable and easy to store when not in use.
