

Training in Asheville, NC

Model Number

Description:

PALMER WAHL TRAINING in Asheville, North Carolina. Up to 7-1/2 Hours at Palmer Wahl Corporate Office - FREE!

Any customer who purchases a Thermal Imaging Camera is invited to receive up to seven and one-half hours of training at the Palmer Wahl facility in Asheville, North Carolina. The training is FREE for as many people as the customer would like to have trained. Customer must contact Palmer Wahl and make an appointment for training.

Our instruction program can be tailored to your application or industry including research & development, utility markets, home & building inspection including roofing, electrical and mechanical equipment, law enforcement, and other application areas.

HEAT SPY® IMAGER TRAINING PROGRAM INCLUDES:

1. Understanding how the Thermal Imaging Camera Works.
2. Learning how to use the Thermal Imaging Camera.
3. Understanding the Software.
4. Overview of Applications.
5. Report Writer overview.