Focus the Conversation.

“You cannot really appreciate the power of magic of Nexus until you use it. The two distinct surface areas help separate ideas or discussion topics, whether it be strategic and tactical, or a visual and task list. I call the Tablet my “laptop” – I can sit down with a client and collaborate or share a concept together, then hang it up and use it as a reference when we work on the adjoining big board. All I can say is that this system just flat-out invites collaboration and engagement as no traditional whiteboard or flip chart ever could.”

— Paul Heagen, Founder and Executive Coach

DEFINING Moments™

Facilitate Learning.

“I love the flexibility of using the Tablets with the easel. I can write on the Tablets ahead of time and pull them out as needed to cover different topics. Furthermore, I like the idea of separating the content – having dynamic content on the easel and then always having my main points on the Tablet hung from the side of the easel. Nexus definitely helps me effectively facilitate discussion and learning.”

— Ray Attiyah, CEO

Definity Partners

Think Green.

“With the Nexus Tablets, I have gone completely paperless in conducting my Leadership Development classes. Each team uses a Tablet to record their work and share with the larger group. Then they erase and start again. We keep our key goals on one side and write and erase on the other. It works great! And, the participants seem very appreciative to be part of an effort that in a small way helps preserve our natural resources.”
