

72" ELECTRIC ADJUSTABLE HEIGHT CONFERENCE TABLE WITH FOOTREST BAR

STANDECTFB72WO

Bring new energy to your next meeting with Luxor's height adjustable standing conference table with footrest bar. With just the touch of a button, this versatile conference table raises from 26" to an impressive height of 51.6" making it perfect for morning huddles and collaborative meetings. Or if sitting is preferred, use the programmable keypad to lower the table for group discussions.

This electric sit-stand conference table features a spacious 72" x 36" tabletop with a beautiful white oak finish and is constructed with a sturdy steel frame and telescoping leg system that easily accommodates team meetings. The two motors quietly lift the three-stage leg columns to quickly raise or lower the table at an impressive 1.2" per second while a programmable keypad will store two preferred heights. An ergonomic footrest bar is included which will reduce fatigue while standing or provide additional comfort when using a stool.

Take a stand for healthier meetings with an electric height adjustable conference table from Luxor.
