

LEVEL UP CORNER PRO – STANDING DESK CONVERTER (BLACK) LVLUP PRO CNR

Don't get backed into a corner with a standing desk converter that's not designed to fit into most standard corner cubicle setups. The Level Up Corner Pro from Luxor lets you transform your existing workstation into a standing desk with its unique construction that maximizes your individual workspace without altering your existing desk.

This adjustable height standing desk converter delivers the ergonomic health benefits of a stand up desk while fitting perfectly into the corner of your desktop. The two-tiered design with its generous 35.4" work surface easily accommodates dual monitors while the lower shelf can house a keyboard and mouse.

Enjoy a seamless transition from sitting to standing with the aid of a lever-assisted pneumatic air cylinder that easily raises the corner desk to its maximum height of 15.7" while a spring-loaded bumper allows gentle lowering. This corner desktop riser arrives fully assembled and is affordably priced, making it the perfect solution for cubicle or modular configurations.
