

40. Investment

Investment is the purchase of assets that are expected to generate a return over time.

Investment and Profitability

1. Investment in physical capital
2. Investment in human capital
3. Investment in research and development
4. Investment in education
5. Investment in infrastructure

41. Investment and Profitability

Investment in physical capital is the purchase of assets that are expected to generate a return over time. Investment in human capital is the purchase of assets that are expected to generate a return over time. Investment in research and development is the purchase of assets that are expected to generate a return over time. Investment in education is the purchase of assets that are expected to generate a return over time. Investment in infrastructure is the purchase of assets that are expected to generate a return over time.

I, J, K
Category	Value	Unit
Investment	100	Millions of Dollars
Profitability	15%	Percentage
Return on Investment	15%	Percentage
Payback Period	6.7 Years	Years
Net Present Value	100	Millions of Dollars
Internal Rate of Return	15%	Percentage