

PRODUCT HIGHLIGHTS

With spectacular Ultra HD resolution, you can improve the effectiveness of your meetings and conferences. Take advantage of lengthy lifespans, the low total cost of ownership, and quality and dependability. Ad hoc meetings can be started with embedded office features without the effort of first setting up the display environment. One of the numerous elements that improve the effectiveness of meetings is wake-up on connection. With a cable-free installation, the HD digital TV tuner adapter for your NEC display provides up to full HD (1920x1080) ATSC or NTSC broadcasts.
