

Universal Projector Security Mount

NEW!

Designed with security in mind, the PSMU-PRS offers dual layers of protection for virtually all multimedia projectors. Its key-lock tray design restricts access to the projector attachment hardware and also serves as a visual theft deterrent offering an extra level of security. PSMU-PRS includes the PRS UL listed mount for fast and easy installation and precise image alignment.

- Dual-levels of security for added theft-deterrence
- Universal tray pattern accommodates most projectors
- Includes PRS mount
- Multiple access holes for versatile cable management
- Easy projector access without compromising mount security
- Available in black, silver or white to match projector or décor
