

Case Report

Case Report

Figure 1: Percentage of correct responses across different conditions. The solid line represents the baseline performance, and the dashed line represents the performance with the intervention. The intervention significantly improved performance, especially at the end of the trial.

