

JEFFERSON BUILDING

1225 19TH STREET NW
WASHINGTON, DC

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

THE OFFERING

Jones Lang LaSalle Americas, Inc. ("JLL"), as exclusive representative for Owner, is pleased to present this opportunity to purchase the leasehold interest in the Jefferson Building (the "Property"), a freestanding 74,248 RSF (75,790 BOMA RSF) boutique office asset. Located in the heart of Washington, DC's central business district ("CBD") and home to historic DC restaurant The Palm, the Property boasts 93% occupancy to 10 tenants with 5.0 years of weighted average lease term ("WALT").

The Property's location – at the corner of 19th Street and Jefferson Place – is in the heart of the CBD's Golden Triangle, downtown Washington, DC's most vibrant and sought-after office location. In total, the Golden Triangle houses 187 restaurants, 11 hotels, 1,000+ multifamily units, and is in close proximity to the White House. Furthermore, the Jefferson Building is located directly on "Restaurant Row," a renowned dining, shopping, and entertainment strip. Situated just one block south of Dupont Circle – one of the most affluent residential neighborhoods in the District – the Property has long attracted tenants whose principals and/or employees live in and around Dupont Circle. In addition, due to a favorable location from a commuting perspective, the Jefferson Building is in a prime location for lawyers and lobbyists who commute from the wealthy western and northwestern suburbs.

The Jefferson Building is a coveted investment opportunity, boasting entrenched tenancy and demonstrated market outperformance. Investors are poised to benefit long-term from the strong, diverse in-place cash flow and the enduring strength of the Class B market. With an average historical occupancy of 95%, the Jefferson Building has solidified the narrative of consistent demand from boutique tenants through all economic cycles.

HISTORIC PALM RESTAURANT

10% OF RBA | BUILDING TENURE: 48 YEARS
LXD: MAY-2027 | PARTIAL GUARANTOR: LANDRY'S INC.

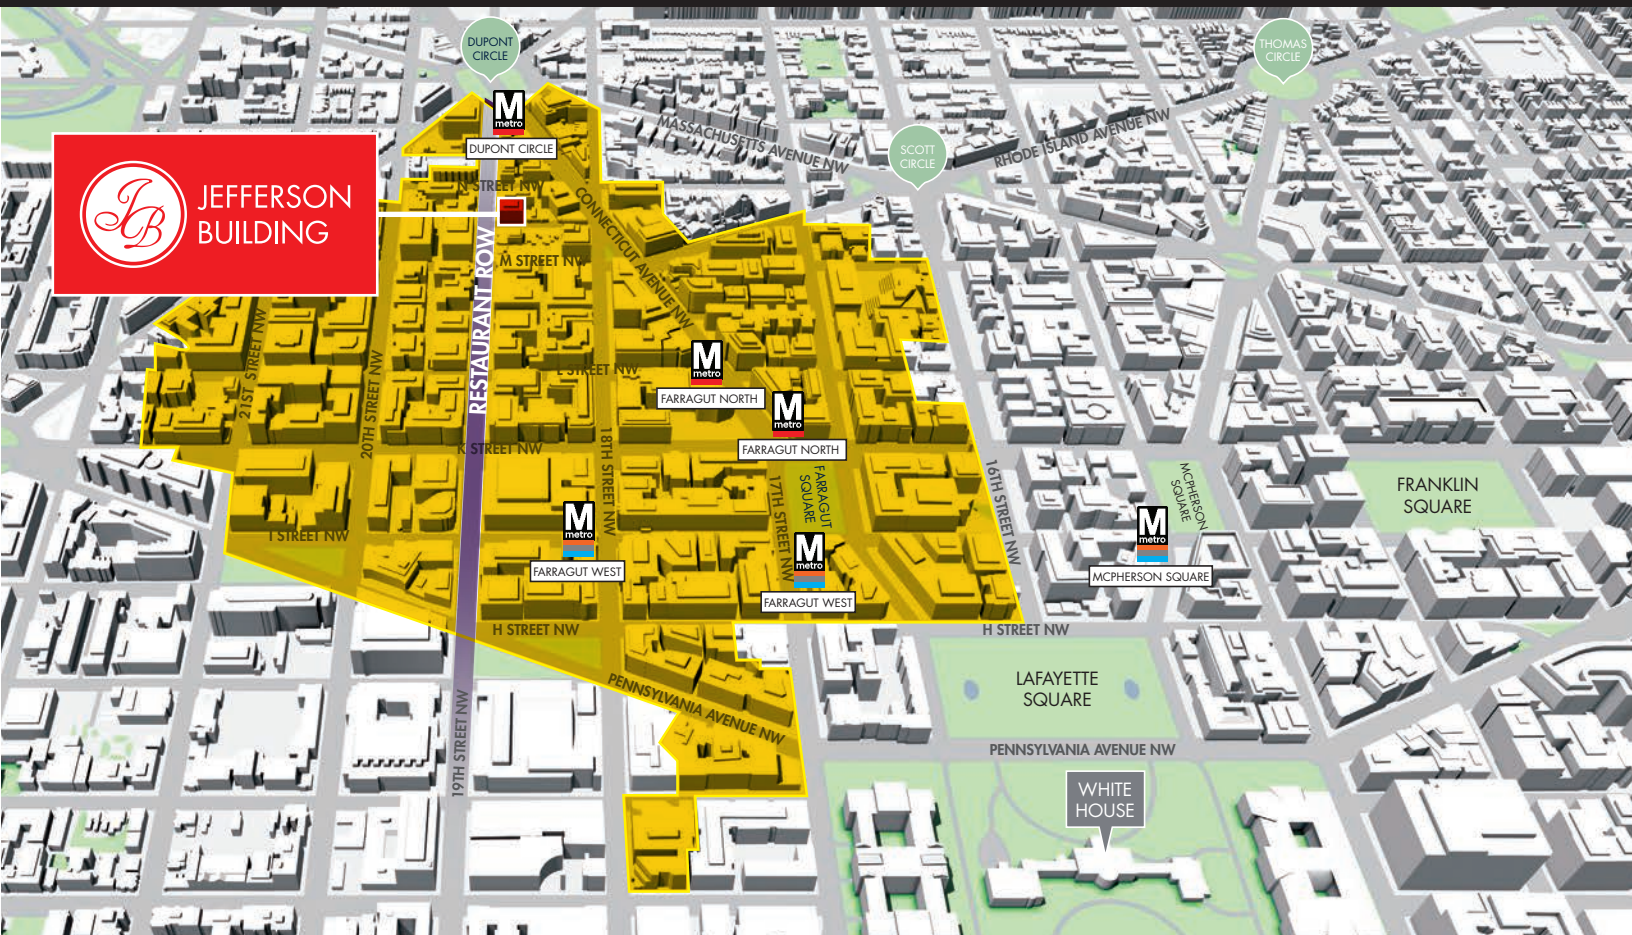

The Palm is a landmark restaurant, which has called the Jefferson Building home for over 48 years. Known as a magnet for powerful politicians, the most reputable journalists, lobbyists, and celebrities, the Palm is a staple of DC's CBD. Not only is the Palm known for being a favorite dining experience for DC's decision makers, the restaurant has gained national recognition, winning the Wine Spectator – Award of Excellence every year since 1997.

Serving prime steaks, whole lobster, Italian specialties and award-winning wines, the Palm is owned by Landry's, the globally-recognized restaurant and entertainment group, and embraces an approach that is focused on service, quality and profitability to achieve a clearly understood goal: to exceed expectations. Founded over 40 years ago, Landry's was taken public in 1993 with a valuation of $30 million. The company had grown significantly by 2010, when all outstanding shares were acquired by the majority owner. Today, Landry's remains a privately held company that owns and operates over 600 restaurants, hotels, casinos, and entertainment destinations in the US, in addition to numerous international locations. Landry's acquired the Palm in March 2020 and is a partial guarantor to the tenant's lease.

The first Washington, DC Palm opened at the Jefferson Building per the request of the then UN Ambassador and former President, George H.W. Bush. Today, the Palm has 23 locations, spanning from Mexico City to Los Angeles to New York City.
