Floor Plans

Midtown Toronto

Midtown Toronto is surrounded by well-established, affluent neighbourhoods of families with disposable income, and is one of Canada’s most active condominium markets. Yonge and Eglinton is one of the newest, most well-connected areas in the city, now serviced by both the Yonge subway line, the new Eglinton Crosstown LRT line, as well as several bus routes. The Property benefits from unparalleled growth in the immediate area, fueled by new condominium developments along Yonge Street, which are drastically increasing the population density in the node, fostering one of Toronto’s most coveted work-live-play environments.

In addition to connectivity and density, this stretch of Yonge Street is home to one of the best shopping strips within Toronto. People are drawn from affluent neighbouring areas (Rosedale, Forest Hill, Leaside, Moore Park, Yonge and Lawrence, Hoggs Hollow, etc.) and truly from all over the city to shop at retailers such as Sporting Life, Roots, Sephora, Lululemon, Starbucks, and Mandy’s.
