

RIVERSCAPE

Set at an extraordinary point in East London where the River Thames meets Lyle Park, Riverscape is surrounded by extensive parkland and verdant landscaping making this one of the capital's greenest and best-connected riverside developments.

Part of an already established and thriving neighbourhood at Royal Wharf – with everything you need on your doorstep – Riverscape's south-facing waterfront setting makes it unique. The curvature of the river at this point provides uninterrupted views across the Thames, green parkland and the iconic Canary Wharf skyline. Apartments open out onto a park-side setting with panoramic views from expansive picture windows making the living experience almost coastal.

You're on the edge of the city, yet immersed in nature.

VISION

Riverscape's landmark buildings occupy an enviable position at Royal Wharf, set within verdant landscaped grounds at the meeting point of the River Thames and Lyle Park. Here, the buildings are defined by panoramic picture windows bathing apartments in natural light, connecting interiors with uninterrupted views across the river, park and beyond.

Riverscape is at the epicentre of what was once the world's largest and busiest port, The Royal Docks. With projected investment of over £8bn over the next 20 years, the 1,200 acres of land and nearly 12 miles of waterfront that make up the Royal Docks Enterprise Zone is re-emerging as a commercial and cultural hub of global significance. Riverscape lies on the edge of this innovative district and is the only river and parkside residential development within easy walking distance of both the new business quarter centred around City Hall, and Crossrail at Custom House station.

All aspects of this unique waterfront setting have been designed and carefully considered from the individual buildings orientated to make the most of expansive views across the River Thames, Lyle Park and the City, to the choreography of evergreen pines and maples, and the crafted interior details echoing the local heritage.

Sean Mulryan
Chairman, Ballymore

Riverscape is at the forefront of Royal Wharf's bold architectural vision, positioned right by the river's edge and along the boundary of Lyle Park. Royal Wharf is the only south-facing development in the capital offering such an expansive, uninterrupted Thames frontage, and the refined architecture of Riverscape provides a clear contrast to the green space and open water surrounding it.

With Ballymore, we've designed brilliantly flexible floorplans offering a choice of balconies or day rooms maximising the flexibility of your living space, transforming into an ideal home office, play room or additional dining area with plenty of natural light.

Glenn Howells,
Chief Architect, Riverscape

The landscaping around Riverscape is like a crescendo in the development. You're moving towards the peak where Lyle Park and the Thames meet, with those tremendous views west. You reach new heights here, with a climax of pines and colourful maple trees – there's a sort of visual lift.

Huw Morgan,
Landscape Architect, Riverscape

Riverscape is adjacent to Lyle Park – a real hidden gem of a traditional London park, tucked away and slightly overlooked by the past. Ballymore could see it was just waiting to be reawakened. The idea was to create a whole new geology here, so we incorporated intimate areas and shady glades, punctuated by rocky outcrops and evergreen pines.

‘The river is so wide here it’s more like the sea – we were inspired by the idea of rocky, coastal outcrops, finding a way to blend these into the planting.’

‘Lyle Park has the advantage of established, mature foliage – our planting schemes incorporate existing woodland and open green spaces.’

HOME

Designed by Jaki Amos, of renowned London design studio Amos & Amos, interiors are inspired by artisanal details echoing the local heritage with reeded glass, crafted joinery, and brushed brassware elevating the design across apartments, entrance lobbies and the residents' only Sky Lounge.

This location offers a wealth of inspiration, from both past and present. Gently weathered timbers and concrete textures provide a subtle nod to the boat building past of the nearby docks, whilst fluted glass cabinetry and crafted timber panelling reference its riverside location alongside the open spaces of Lyle Park.

Jaki Amos,
Interior Designer, Riverscape

There's a reassuring hush to the atmosphere as soon as you walk into Riverscape. High ceilings in the main entrance lobbies are slatted with smoked oak timber softening noise, and botanical views into the gardens are framed by the geometry of floor to ceiling windows. Bespoke pieces include bolstered day beds in shades of rust, and patinated bronze post boxes. This emphasis on artisan, handcrafted design continues to the 16th floor Sky Lounge with cane-work chairs, terrazzo stone tables and custom-made lighting. Individual desk areas are subtly demarcated with reeded glass upstands. This meticulous attention to fine detail is maintained in the apartments themselves, from bespoke brushed brass ironmongery to fluted limestone effect tiles in the bathrooms, all one-off designs made especially for Riverscape.

‘With Ballymore, we wanted to create interiors with an underlying sense of luxury – there’s an artisan, crafted feel to cabinetry and joinery, details of patinated bronze and brushed brassware elevating the design.’

Exclusive to all Riverscape residents, the 16th floor Sky Lounge is as an extension of their home with spaces for meeting, socialising and collaborating – this is the perfect place to mix and mingle with like-minded neighbours.

Make use of the Sky Lounge day or night, whether it's an intimate dinner or a drinks party for a large crowd overlooking the glistening Thames, our concierge will arrange personal chefs, mixologists and bartenders to provide catering as you need it.

BALLYMORE

Ballymore remains a family business, but one with an international reputation for innovative projects that push boundaries and energise cities. We believe we are selling more than just a place to live. We refer to our developments as 'resorts' because we understand that the experience outside your front door, is just as important as the home you live in. We're fascinated by placemaking, looking beyond well-established areas to discover and regenerate new locations, including some of London's most transformative urban development projects.
