Where creativity inspires life

Triptych

/ˈtrip.tɪk/

A set of three associated artistic, literary, or musical works intended to be appreciated together.

Triptych Bankside has been designed to capture the essence of a gallery, with sculptural and art influences evident throughout the internal and external architecture across the family of three buildings.

The development was named in honour of this distinctive architecture; the undulating curves of these three striking buildings, set serenely against London's skyline, undeniably reflect three sculptural pieces of art.

Additionally, the name pays homage to the developments positioning as neighbour to the world famous Tate Modern gallery; whose collections include triptychs from many highly acclaimed artists.

Welcome to Triptych Bankside

A new mixed-use development designed by renowned London architects Squire & Partners, the undulating curves of the façade present a fresh and distinct contrast to the homogeneous silhouette of symmetric towers marking London's skyline.

Comprising two residential towers, a low-rise office building, retail and cultural facilities, Triptych Bankside invites you to be inspired and create a life you desire.

An Integrated Community

The residences consist of two towers, 14 and 18 storeys respectively. All 169 open-plan, light-filled apartments uniquely benefit from private terraces with stunning views.

Tenants enjoy exclusive access to private amenities such as 24 hour Concierge, Residents' Lounge, Workspace facilities, a Games room, and a private Cinema. These are complemented by a Gym/Wellness establishment, hand-picked independent retailers, communal gardens, and even a Cultural facility all on-site at Triptych Bankside. This is where architecture meets substance, spaces merge seamlessly, and experiences are shared.

Cinema & Games Room

Fostering a balanced lifestyle, residents at Triptych Bankside benefit from exclusive access to laid-back spaces to unwind, socialise, and have fun.

A 14 person Cinema fitted with a state-of-the-art surround sound and projector system is a cosy yet luxurious venue to host fun movie and sports nights with friends. Akin to a more lounge-like setting, this space is furnished with L-shaped sofas and plush velvet drapes. Popcorn and a variety of other snacks are at your fingertips to provide an authentic cinema experience.

The Games room stays true to the comfortable yet sophisticated tone of the residences. Complete with a pool table and ping-pong, as well as a large screen TV, here you are invited to relax after a long day. Additionally, modular furniture, a bar area* and private dining facility for use by residents make this space a convenient, flexible extension to your living space.

Outdoor Living & Urban Forest

Organically merging with its locality, Triptych Bankside seamlessly adds to and extends the urban landscape and greenery of the surrounding environment. Extending part of the Bankside Urban Forest project, the architecture and landscaping of the development respects and supports the regeneration efforts of the neighbourhood. With its own communal gardens and walkways and just a stone's throw away from the river Thames, Triptych Bankside is truly an enlivening destination to live, work, and visit.

A complete urban quarter, Triptych Bankside offers a variety of high-end retail and food destinations hand-picked for their individuality and originality. Completed by a splendid wine bar, you never have to go far to indulge in exquisite delights.

Venture out, and you will find surrounding Bankside is a gastronomic district in its own right, host to an exotic mix of food and drink experiences only a stone's throw away. With the much loved Borough Market—London's famous organic food market—only ten minutes on foot, look forward to being taken on a colourful journey of the senses.

Borough Market

Located just around the corner from Triptych Bankside, Southwark homes one of the most spectacular tantalising gems of London. With its history dating back to at least the 12th century, Borough Market is one of the largest, oldest and most outstanding food markets in London. This sprawling high-end market consists of a multitude of independent tradespeople offering everything from organic meats, fruit and vegetables, to artisanal breads, coffees, sandwiches and cakes.

The Residences

Living & Dining

Reach home and feel an innate sense of belonging. The residences at Triptych Bankside embody modern elegance and comfortable luxury.

An exceptional architectural element, all apartments feature their own private terrace—your stage from which to admire London's famed skyline. Natural daylight flows in through floor-to-ceiling height windows, evoking a sense of connecting with the outdoors. This is further emphasised by the dual aspect views available in most units.

Kitchens

The open-plan setting creates a natural convergence between the Living and Kitchen area. Reflecting a loft-like ambience, this space is generous, light-filled, and nurtures social interaction while hosting guests.

The contemporary and seamless design features built-in Miele appliances*, integrated into handleless, soft-close units. Light-coloured stone countertops maintain a clean and modern look. Select apartments also host an island, offering added counter space and functionality. For optimal convenience, a dedicated utility cupboard tucks away a separate Miele washing machine and Miele tumble dryer.

Bathrooms

The bespoke Italian design in the Bathrooms pays exceptional attention to detail. Large walk-in showers and light-coloured floor and wall tiles enhance the impression of spaciousness, complemented by wood vanity units injecting organic softness. Intelligent lighting design considers practicality as well as comfort. Completed with underfloor heating and wall-mounted towel rails, the Bathrooms provide a truly blissful experience.

The Bedrooms are a tranquil haven to retreat to against an awe-inspiring backdrop at night. Floor-to-ceiling height windows extend into this space, providing uninterrupted views and connection with the urban landscape. In keeping with this, some Bedrooms offer separate balcony access. Built-in wardrobes are designed to afford practicality, illuminated by concealed LED strip lights and with enough space for both hanging and folded garments. Convenient access to an en-suite Bathroom can be enjoyed by all master Bedrooms.

As part of our commitment to the local community, Triptych Bankside is facilitating the delivery of a new purpose-built development of 57 new alms-houses to be operated by the United St Saviour's Charity. Designed by Stirling Prize winning Architect, Watson Witherford Mann, the exceptional new sheltered homes for the elderly will open in Q4 2021 and form part of Southwark's commitment to provide 21,000 new affordable homes. The development will include beautiful local community facilities and services for everyone.

Triptych Bankside has been designed to the very highest standard and finished to complement and enhance the world-class caliber of its immediate surroundings. Michael Squires

Architecture

Triptych Bankside has been designed to capture the essence of a gallery, with sculptural and art influences evident throughout the internal and external architecture across the family of three buildings. Gently twisting forms, combined with undulating curved terraces wrapping around the exteriors, affords the buildings a considered sculptural aesthetic. The development displays a beautifully crafted and innovative architecture reflecting artistic influences via earthy, organic and metallic-material qualities that proudly expresses the rich culture of its context.

JTRE London was founded in September 2019 by one of Central Europe's leading property developers JTRE, based in Slovakia. JTRE entered the UK real estate market in 2018 having acquired its first Prime Central London asset for development on the South Bank, and appointed London residential property developer Sons & Co as the project manager responsible for the development and delivery of the £400 m mixed use scheme, Triptych Bankside. In spring 2020, JTRE completed the acquisition of Sons & Co London Limited.

Founded in 1996, JTRE now has over 300 employees with offices in three countries and broad experience developing and managing a wide range of real estate projects in nine countries, mainly in Central and Eastern Europe, totalling over 10 million sq ft with a GDV of over €1.6bn. To date, JTRE's focus has been on its home city of Bratislava (Slovak Republic) as well as the Czech Republic. Following on from its initial UK acquisition, the company is actively seeking high profile, high value schemes all over London.

Sons & Co, formerly known as L&H and founded by brothers Alex and Christian Stocker, alongside Simon Roberts, have worked together on the development of over 550 apartments and houses in central London and have over 30 years' experience of delivering development projects to the highest standard.
