DOMINO'S
FARMS
OFFICE PARK

Welcome to Domino's Farms

Nestled within a beautifully landscaped area, Domino's Farms is a structure (over a half-mile long) that stands as a tranquil oasis, seamlessly connecting with the soothing embrace of nature. Employees and visitors find solace during breaks, strolling along winding pathways or finding respite in cozy outdoor seating areas, allowing nature's beauty to rejuvenate their spirits and inspire their work.

The bison herd at Domino's Farms Office Park is a tribute to Michigan's historical landscape of the 1790s when bison roamed here. Domino's Farms bison herd numbers around 80 animals, with the largest weighing about 2,000 pounds.

A Michigan Architectural Landmark

Domino's Farms Office Park represents the vision of Tom Monaghan, founder of Domino's Pizza and former owner of the Detroit Tigers. It reflects his deep appreciation for our area's natural landscape, his love of Frank Lloyd Wright's architectural vision, and commitment to creating a one-of-a-kind, inspiring, and uplifting office space.
