Investment Highlights

High-quality new construction

760-764 Joseph-Louis-Mathieu is a Class A industrial building built in 2022. It features 3 loading docks, 2 floor-level doors and 24-foot-high ceilings. The building is equipped with ESFR sprinklers and 600 amp/600 volt electrical inlets. The site also has 43 parking spaces. To date, the building covers only 25% of the lot, and the zoning in place allows for a maximum coverage of 50%, which could potentially increase the leasable area on the site.

An investment sale

The opportunity presented is that of an investment through the purchase of a building with income in place. The asset has three tenants with long-term leases

Exceptional tenant profiles

The property is fully leased to three leading Canadian companies.

- Inox, a specialist in the custom manufacture of stainless steel parts and equipment for various industrial sectors, including food and pharmaceuticals.
- Robox, expert in the design and manufacture of corrugated boxes, offering customized packaging solutions with flexographic printing and die-cutting services.
- Purodora, manufacturer of innovative air and surface purification products for the residential, commercial, industrial and institutional sectors.

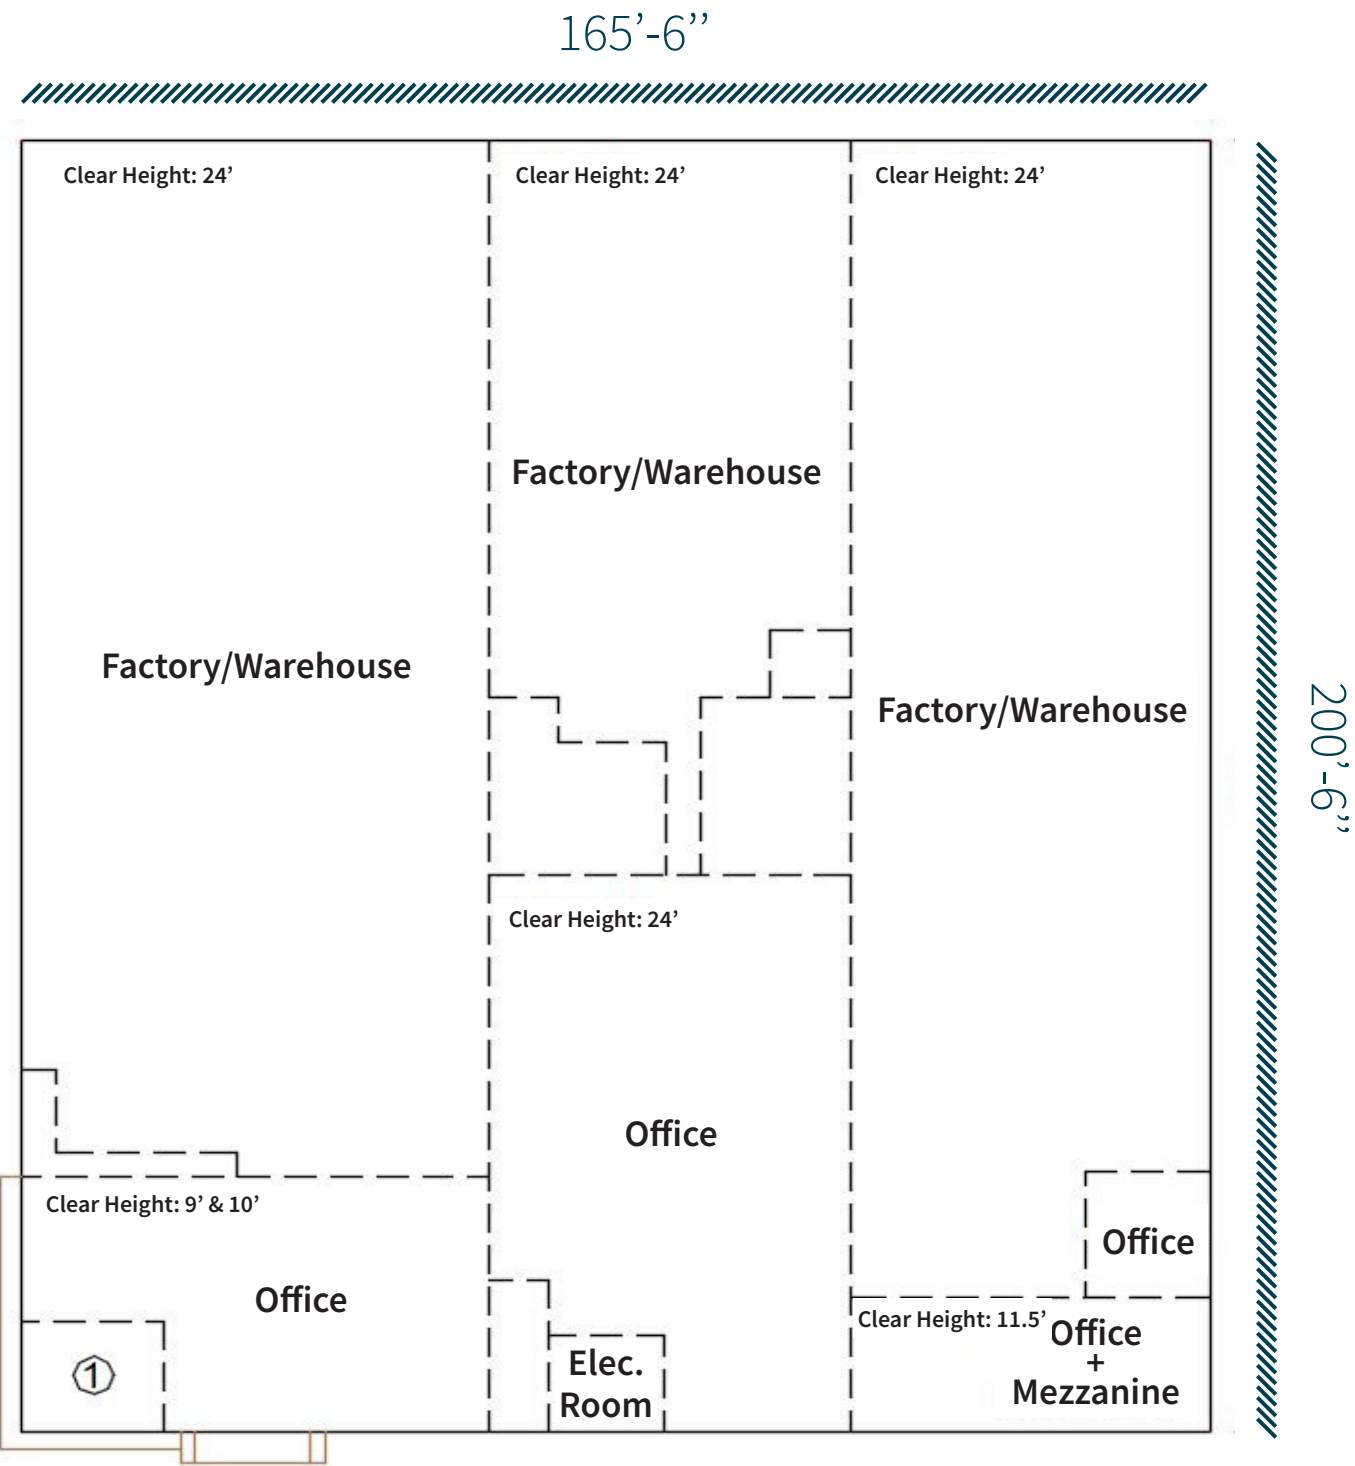

Property Overview

760-764 Joseph-Louis-Mathieu is a 33,230 SF industrial flex building located on 135,528 SF of land in Sherbrooke. The asset is located in an industrial zoning, which allows the construction of a maximum two-storey building and a maximum coverage of 50% of the total land area.

Purodora is willing to renegotiate its lease to facilitate the transaction.
