

Business Meets Luxury

RBC Gateway brings a new vision for a historic downtown Minneapolis site. At just under two acres, the site is situated on what was once home to the renowned Nicollet Hotel. This area is historically referred to as Bridge Square, because of its location at the southern foot of the Hennepin Avenue Bridge and is said to be Minneapolis' original downtown. At the turn of the 20th century, the area was rebranded into The Gateway District to celebrate its status as the gateway into Minneapolis. Today, this area remains as the historic core of the city and the RBC Gateway project helps celebrate these deep roots.

Within its 1.2 million square feet, RBC Gateway is home to RBC Wealth Management's world headquarters, the Pohlad Companies, and a Four Seasons Hotel - Minneapolis' first 5-star luxury hotel. The tower also includes 33 private residential condos, a public plaza with green space, and the street-level restaurants, Mara and Socca Café.
