AREA OVERVIEW

Located in Toronto’s sought-after Queen Street West neighborhood, this property sits at the heart of one of Canada’s coolest retail destinations. Queen Street West has thrived as a premier shopping hub for decades, continually evolving while maintaining its distinctive character and appeal.

With the 501 Queen streetcar at the doorstep and just steps from Osgoode Subway Station, the location offers unparalleled public transit connectivity for both customers and staff. Positioned on the south side of Queen Street West, near University Avenue, the site benefits from high pedestrian and vehicular traffic flowing from the Entertainment District and the downtown core.

The surrounding area boasts an impressive roster of retailers including Lululemon, Aritzia, Aux Merveilleux de Fred, Planta and Starbucks, alongside local boutiques and eateries that have established this district as a vibrant cultural destination with in-demand amenities.
